

CALL OUT FOR BLAST!

Seed commission funding opportunity for performing artists & creatives to be part of BLAST!
The Dukes annual new work showcase.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR:

Individuals (£1k) or a company (£1.5k seed money) from Lancashire, the North West or with a strong connection to the region to create a short performance piece to be delivered as part of the BLAST! - a mixed-bill night of performance and new work taking place on Thu 20th April 2023.

You can be working in any traditional or non-traditional artform.

WE REQUIRE:

The seed money can be used however you wish. We require a performative "end product" between 15 and 25 mins long to be delivered at The Dukes on Thu 20th April 2023. Technical rehearsal time will be offered the day before performance, and a run through scheduled the day of the performance. Some additional rehearsal space can be granted prior to this.

WHAT TO DO

To apply, please send us in (no more than one side of A4):

- Some background to your company / your work / practice and any other creatives who might be involved, mentioning where you are from or your connection to Lancashire
- A paragraph about your proposed activity
- What your strengths are and any areas you feel you specifically need assistance with

Please send to programming@dukeslancaster.org marking your application "BLAST! SEED COMMISSION CALL OUT".

If you prefer, the above info can be recorded to camera (max 2 minutes) rather than written . Please email the link to the same email above.
